Pop BAM 2024 - Stallholder application form

* indicates a required field

About the Event

Date: 27 July 2024

Time: 10am-3pm

Location: Rathmines Theatre and Rathmines Park

Wham, bam, Pop Bam! Lake Macquarie's newest popular culture festival returns this July!

Lake Mac Pop Bam is a celebration of all things popular culture including comics, superheroes, music, film, television and everything in between.

This inclusive event for all ages and abilities will celebrate the magic that is popular culture.

Pop Bam is a ticketed event and we are looking for general market stallholders and food vendors to join us!

All stallholders will be required to bring all necessary equipment for their stall (marquee, table, chairs, and specific stall equipment) and must bring marquee weights. No pegging of marquees is allowed in the park.

Selection process:

All applications will be reviewed by a panel of LMCC staff based on the nature of the event with the following factors taken into consideration;

- The product or service being delivered and its alignment with the nature of the event.
- The competitive, affordable, and accessible pricing of products and alignment with the audience attending the event.
- The quality and standard of the product or service being offered
- Location of your business/organisation, noting applications from within Lake Macquarie City Council LGA are given preference (taking into consideration all other criteria), followed by the Hunter Region, Central Coast, and finally, Sydney and surrounds.
- Balance of opportunity between vendors to attend and supply products and services at LMCC events.
